SALE OF SALT AT THE MADRAS SALT DEPOT.

NOTICE.

Some misunderstanding appears to exist among the salt traders in the interior of the terms on which salt is sold by Government at the Madras Salt Depôt. It is therefore notified that it is not the case that salt is there sold for transport inland by rail only to the merchants who purchase upon credit, but that it is available for sale for that purpose to all applicants at Rs. 2—11—0 per maund in any quantity from 1 maund upwards. Payment may be made in cash or currency notes every day (except sanctioned holidays) between the hours of 8 and 1 P. M. Salt paid for will, as far as possible, be delivered the same day. Purchasers of a full railway waggon-load (200 maunds) at one time are allowed favorable rates of freight by the Railway Company.

H. W. BLISS,
Commissioner of Salt Revenue.
